Bearer Shares/Warrants to Bearer

- Higher risk of ML/FT – undertake additional measures to mitigate risk
- When customer or any entity within the structure is a company with bearer shares

Documents issued in a jurisdiction that requires notification and registration of shareholders in a register:

- True copy of register, signed and certified by the company secretary, director, registered agent
- and
- Written undertaking from company secretary, director, registered agent that SP will be notified immediately if bearer share certificate is transferred

Bearer share certificates are deposited with a regulated FI or custodian:

- Copy of bearer share certificate;
  - Written declaration certifying on whose behalf document is held, signed by FI or custodian;
- and
- Written undertaking by FI or custodian that SP will be notified immediately if bearer share certificate is transferred

Body Corporate or Body of Persons

Companies listed on a regulated market

- BO of company that has its securities listed on a regulated market
- Subject to disclosure requirements consistent with:
  - EU legislation; or
  - International standards ensuring adequate transparency of ownership information
- Company is a majority-owned subsidiary of such listed companies (and there can be no other BO)

Transparency of ownership information
No need to identify and verify the beneficial owner(s)

Body Corporate or Body of Persons

Control through other means

Assess and determine whether anybody controls the entity through other means:

- Where nobody has been identified through Tier One; or
- There is reason to believe that another person is exercising ultimate control over the running or management of the entity, regardless of any ownership of shares or voting rights

Directors: not considered to fall under this definition solely by virtue of their position

Case-by-case assessment when there are circumstances that indicate that a person is exercising control over the management

Body Corporate or Body of Persons

Senior managing officials

Consider senior managing official(s) of the customer as BO(s)

After having exhausted all possible means

No grounds of suspicion

Document the actions taken to try and identify the BO(s)

Last resort – not a default measure

Body Corporate or Body of Persons

Senior managing officials

Who are the senior managing officials?

Depends on the type of body corporate or body of persons

- a) Those persons responsible for taking strategic decisions affecting the business operations or general direction of the entity;
  - Directors

- b) Those persons exercising executive control over the daily or regular affairs of the entity through senior management positions
  - Executive functions
  - Executive directors
  - CEOs
  - CFOs

Trusts

- Settlor (initial and subsequent)
- Trustee(s)
- Protector (where applicable)
- Beneficiaries/class of beneficiaries
- Any other natural person exercising ultimate control over the trust through direct or indirect ownership or by other means, e.g.:

Power, under trust deed or by law, to:

- Dispose of, advance, lend, pay, apply trust property
- Vary or terminate trust
- Add or remove beneficiary
- Add or remove person to or from class of beneficiaries
- Appoint/remove trustees
- Give another individual control over trust
- Direct/withhold consent the exercise of the above powers

Look at the persons who occupy specific roles

Legal entities (such as foundations), Arrangements similar to trusts

E.g.: Treuhands/Fiducie, other structures that mimic trusts (assess on a case-by-case basis)

Persons undertaking equivalent roles:

- Founder (settlor): initial and subsequent
- Administrator (trustee)
- Member(s) of supervisory council (protector)
- Beneficiaries in whose interest the foundation is set up or operates
- Any other natural person ultimately exercising control

Purpose trusts: Set up for a cause or a purpose.

- No beneficiaries to identify;
- Determine the cause or purpose for which the entity is set up

Look at the persons who occupy specific roles

- ✓ Understand who your customer is acting for
- ✓ Look at the definition which applies to your direct customer
- ✓ Assess the entire structure, then aggregate ownership
- ✓ Grounds for suspicion? Consider STR
- ✓ Document your actions
